Selena Joy Lovett~ Psychic & Moonologist

As a teenager, I noticed I felt differently about life and would feel things in a way others didn't. This led me to look for something I felt was missing—the meaning of life!! Luckily, I discovered Tarot, which gave me a lot of the answers that I was looking for. Through this form of divination, I discovered and really connected with my intuition.

After losing my mum, I looked for proof that there was an afterlife and was lucky enough to find a gifted medium who offered me not just evidence, but healing. From that moment on, I felt that was also my purpose—to be able to help heal others, to guide people through difficult situations and to give insights into their lives. After many years of studying under talented mentors, I was accredited at the Lisa Williams International School of Spiritual Development. We'll work in-depth

I am also a Reiki Master, and Energy Healer, having trained in many methods and have studied Chinese Medicine, Hypnotherapy, EFT, Mindfulness & Life Coaching. I am a Yoga Nidra Facilitator using meditation and breathwork to help to bring healing and create space for a stronger connection to spirit. My focus now is to empower people on their journeys, and help them heal and move any blocks that hinder their paths. This I do through teaching others how to connect to their own intuition and self healing. I'm passionate about revealing the 'secrets' of tarot and taking away the mysticism about being psychic.

*I co-created the Journey to Enlightenment Tarot Deck and the Journey to Enlightenment Self-
Healing book.*

My aim is to make tarot accessible and easy to follow by showing the insight each card offers us. Tarot enables us to take control of our lives and discover the best way forward. Teaching and guiding others on their spiritual journey is something I love. I have been lucky to have trained many students in psychic development, tarot and in manifesting magic. I use cards and the magic of the Moon to help others reach their goals and discover their true potential. I love being psychic. I don't understand the non-believers who turn a blind eye to this natural gift that we all have!! How can we not do everything we can to enhance our inherent gift and use the art of being psychic to guide us on our journey through life? By embracing this gift, we can recognise the signs we are given that show the correct choices and decisions for us. Once armed with this knowledge, we can then make better decisions and use the information to improve our lives, replacing any fear and insecurity with knowledge and trust.

Dawn Smith~ Psychic/ Medium Trance Channel

Dawn Smith is a Psychic Medium and Spiritual teacher who believes we come to our development at the right time, when we are truly ready to embrace a new way of thinking and to embody new ideas that help to fill a void or longing for something more. Dawn is an open channel for the Spirit World and loves to work within the trance modality.

She has a strong connection to her guides and inspirers, which she brings through channelled messages and inspirational address and this is what Dawn would like to share and teach at the event.

Dawn's awareness to her Life Guide first began as a child and developed over the coming years, once Dawn stepped into her development the connection to her Guides became a pivotal turning point with her work. "Spirit Guides are all around us, the often unseen and unsung heroes that tether themselves to us to help and support us as we navigate this lifetime and life;s purpose.

If you choose to begin a journey of discovery and deeper understanding towards the part Guides play in your life and how this untapped resource can bring immense and immeasurable clarity and hope into difficult and stressful situations this introduction to Guides will be immeasurable. You may not have any knowledge of Spirit Guides, or you may feel you have already met or know who your Guides are, I will help you build the beginnings of a firm foundation for strong and robust connection, allowing you to have a deeper and more meaningful experience. Also, an understanding of who your Guides are and how they step forward into your life to give you direction and support when negotiating your souls purpose. Looking at Spirit Guides and the part they play within the role of Spiritual Development, working Psychic Mediums and for every living soul is an important stepping stone to self-empowerment and self-awareness.

Alongside the Higher Self, Spirit Guides are a powerful and essential part of life's rich tapestry, guiding and supporting us in everyday life and throughout major turning points and milestone events.

For many they remain unseen and unheard and yet, a reunion and awareness of souls is yours for the taking. Each experience is completely unique and each connection useful and integral within an individuals process of growth. To understand that there is so much more than you, a whole other world that is intrinsically linked to your earthly life. You are forever connected to the divine through messengers and disincarnate souls who chose to help you ascend and fulfil your true life's purpose. This is a perfect opportunity to take you on a beautiful journey of self discovery of yourself and your Spirit” Dawn is also a member of the Spiritualists’ National Union (SNU) and accredited at the Lisa Williams International School of Spiritual Development.

Your Lesson

Ultimate Psychic & Manifestation

This weekend I will be teaching some psychic exercises to help open your 3rd eye and strengthen your connection. Then we'll look at a few methods to help you tap in deeper to the signs you are receiving and notice the synchronicities of life. with colour, allowing you to see and feel the vibration of colour. This will help you feel into the message offered by your divination tool or spirit. You can then use this connection with colour to receive information from the people's auras and chakras. We will also be learning about charm and crystal casting, a fabulous divination tool to use alone or to enhance your readings. I have always loved and felt a strong connection to the Moon. Perhaps it's because I was named after the goddess of the Moon. My mum might have known that I'd grow up working and connecting to the ways of the Moon! I work with the cycles of the Moon to create the life that I want and to manifest my best life. I love passing on the knowledge of how to harness this magical flowing energy.

Others can also live their lives with the energetic flow of the Moon, using it to enhance their lives and feel the abundance available to all.

So, during this weekend I will be offering a workshop on releasing blockages, healing and manifesting rituals. We'll also work with the Moon, learning how to use her energy to empower your life and develop your intuition.

If you're an early riser, you can join my morning breathwork session to clear your higher chakras. This is an exercise that you can incorporate into your daily energy care routine, followed by a grounding and protecting meditation to set you up for your spiritually connected day!!

Selena xoxo

We take a look at connection through daily spiritual practice and guided meditation, signs, symbols and how to interpret these through your Clair senses. Explore this beautiful world and take the beginning steps towards your souls reunion with your Life Guide and begin to utilise the wisdom and direction that is in fact your birthright. We also explore the powerful modality of Channelling and Automatic writing as Spirit communicate with us in many ways, we take a deeper look at your ability to allow Spirit energy to flow through you.

We look at the importance of establishing a strong connection and energetic flow to allow Inspirational Address and Philosophy to be given and received, the importance of surrender and the understanding between our Spirit Guides and our Higher Self. Your Lesson

Messages from the Animal Kingdom.

You may not be able to talk to animals like Dr. Dolittle, but I believe that there are other ways we can effectively communicate with our animal friends. Over the weekend you will quickly learn how to understand and interpret animals, thoughts, and feelings/behaviours. Animal communication is similar too, learning a new language. It is the ability to be able to interpret your animal's thoughts and feelings into a language.

This is a language of unspoken words, where communication takes place through thought and feelings. How does it work? When you receive information from them intuitively, you can pick up the information in the way of feelings, emotions, images, taste, and smell. We have the ability too, connect with our animals and learn to understand them better on a deeper level. Would you like to communicate with your animals? Would you like to understand to them? Would you like to connect on a soul level? And to be able to better understand them, in the way they understand you.

Would you like to connect with animals in spirit? To understand an animal on an emotional can be live changing; have you ever looked at your animal and wondered what they are thinking, of if they had something to say? Do you know your Totem

Animal from your Animal Spirit Guide? Every animal has a powerful spirit and message to share with you. Lifelong totem animals are usually animals of the wild. The animal chooses you; you do not get to choose your totem animal. Spirit animal guides differ, in the aspect that you may have several spirit animals guides throughout your lifetime. Every creature will its own unique talents and power. A study of the animal's power will enable to help you to develop that power, quality within your own life.

Discover your Totem Animal and learn to work with the spirit animals, that come into your life and the message they bring!

Anita xoxo

Healing

1. “Sitting in the power”, with an intention to expand your healing abilities and getting to know your beautiful team of healing guides. You will learn the importance of knowing the difference between your own energy and others energy. Why do some healers get tired when they give healing to clients and others not? Torunn will teach you how to be a great channel for the healing intelligence, without getting tired and give away your own energy to the clients.

2. Healing guides and self-healing. Guided healing meditation that helps you to activate the power of healing. This session will help you to build a deeper connection with your healing guides and go deeper into higher frequencies and activate your own natural healing abilities.

Torunn will share with you some amazing and beautiful pictures from her healing guides. These pictures are sent directly from her healing guides, as a prove of the healing intelligence, love, gratefulness, and support from her healing guides. These pictures often have symbols like a heart, energy circles and angels in it.

3. Group healing with Harry Edwards technique. Harry Edwards was a renowned spiritual healer from England, who had massive public healing demonstration. In 1948 Harry had a public healing demonstration in Manchester, which was attended by 6 000 people. He also filled the whole Royal Festival Hall in London. Harry Edwards’s healing, together with a team of healers who joined him in the healing demonstration had incredible results. The students will in this session be able to receive and give healing with Harry Edwards’s unique technique.

4. Distance healing is defined as “a compassionate mental act intended to improve the health and well-being of another person/ or animal at a distance” This is the most common healing modalities. The students will experience and learn more about how to heal both other living beings with distance healing, and also how to send healing to the world.

5. Trance healing is a very powerful method of spiritual healing because the healing energy comes directly from healing guides and angels. Trance healing works on the emotional, mental, physical, and soul level. When you do trance healing, the healing energy works better and last longer.
